FOREWORD

"To set ship clean anew
When hearts are young."

—James Elroy Flecker

These words express aptly our sentiments as we, the Class of 1959, prepare to leave our little cove.

Although for twelve years we have been conditioned to the pound of the surf and the roar of the vast seas ahead, and have been awaiting the momentous day of graduation, it is with some trepidation that we raise sail windward. Our thoughts turn wistfully to the happy days we spent in the harbor—learning, playing, sighing, laughing, hoping, dreaming.

It is our hope that in this log you will find the explanation of our voyage on the good ship OAHS and catch the spirit that we found, made better, and now leave to those still in harbor. This we do in appreciation.

ALMA MATER

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater,"
Deeply carved on every heart,
Shall be found unwavering, true,
When we from life shall part.
High School life, at best, is passing
Gliding swiftly by,
Let us pledge in word, in deed,
Our Love for Oxford High.

Far across life's mighty ocean
To thee our loyal hearts we raise
Sturdy stands our firm devotion
Our voices sing thy praise
Through the years that are before us,
We'll strive—in war, in peace,
We'll always keep your light to guide us,
Until our work will cease.

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater"
Follow knowledge to the skies
Oxford's light will clearly glow,
Sealed by friendship's ties.

DEDICATION

NADEINE R. COPE

Although our high school years have been joyful ones, there have also been trying times. When problems have beset us, there has been someone who we feel has been especially interested in our welfare and who has helped to light the way. Her classroom has been a cheerful and pleasant place of learning, for she has been sincerely concerned about each student. Her interest in our extra-curricular activities is evidenced by her faithful attendance at various school functions.

For these reasons we, the Class of 1959, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Nadeine R. Cope.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

Dr. Vernon H. W. Dessenberger

And so the young man, having taken leave of his parents, set out upon his own voyage. His spirits were high being stirred by his new found freedom. His body pulsated with the excitement of adventure. While his plans for his voyage had been hastily drawn and details were missing, this disturbed him not, for many other voyages would follow. Greater attention could then be given to plans and purpose.

Casting himself free from his mooring he suspected not that this should be his life's voyage. There would be no returning to the homelands from which he so anxiously departed. How could he know that he would be tossed about aimlessly and endlessly unless he alone worked out the details of his life's plan and became master of his ship?

In after years it was found written in his log: "My ears thirst for the sounds of wisdom and my heart has learned in silence the secrets of the days and nights. I listen to the whispered prayers of the seas, the forests and the mountains. I have learned to steer by the light of a distant star which gives me courage, as well as a fixed point to which I adjust my rudder. Yet the visions I have are mine for they are a treasure shared by no man."

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Edward V. Topping

"We live in a wondrous and miraculous age." The greatest miracle of all is endless, ceaseless change. We have, in a sense, become accustomed to change throughout the history of mankind, but today this change is greatly accelerated. Changes of all nature are inevitable. In themselves some are good and some are bad, but for each of us, they will all be bad unless we learn to adjust and adapt ourselves to them. There are different degrees of adjustment and adaptation—some passive, some active.

A changing world means a world full of challenging opportunity for all of us who are willing to accept the challenge and use our talents properly.

There are many ways to prepare for these great challenges, these great opportunities. Education and experience are the obvious answers. No matter what kind of education or experience the future holds for us, it is individual initiative and enterprise that will determine the degree of success we may obtain.

With confidence in our own abilities and faith in the wisdom of the goals we have set in life, we will be able to adjust and to adapt to changing circumstances—we won't be thrown from our course.

High School Principal

A JOURNEY OF HOPE

Avast there, me hearties, and gather ye' round,
With the mains'ls and tops'ls a-flowin';
I'll sing ye a song of a ship brave and bold
Who carried the wealth of twelve years in'er hold;
A proud craft with white sails a-blowin'.

She breezed out of port in the year fifty-nine,
With a hundred and five cheerin' bo'suns;
With some bound for hallowed ivy-clad walls
And some set to industry's clamoring calls—
But all had to sail o're an ocean.

For long they'd been yearnin' to launch out the brig.
Their captain 'ad taught port an' starb'rd
Through many a squall they had weathered the wave,
By now 'twas the salt of the sea they did crave—
And little thought they of their harbor.

Now listen, me boys, that ye may not think wrong,
And pay ye good heed to the close of my song.
These trusty young seamen, a hundred an' more,
Shall never forget, as they push out from shore,
The loves that they knew, the words that they spoke,
The groans at a task, the laugh at a joke,
Were all part of schoolhood, that safe little cove;
And whither they go and as far as they rove,
That beacon of light still breaks through the night
And brightens their journey of hope.

During the past twelve years we have learned much about living compatibly with others. These experiences have been as important a part of our education as classwork. The time of applying this knowledge, personal and academic, is now at hand.

Cooperation with classmates will become cooperation with co-workers and toleration of their rights; school spirit will become sincere interest in college or community; external control will become self-discipline.

If association with our classmates has accomplished all this, our school has served its purpose; it has readied us for life's voyage. As we embark, we must use our knowledge as a compass to keep us from reefs and to guide us ahead through the open seas.

I must down to the seas again
To the lonely seas and the sky—
And all I need is a tall ship
and a star to steer her by.

JUNIOR HIGH

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

This club with its sponsors, Mrs. Edwards and Miss Scola, holds an annual dance to raise money for buying clothing, food, and toys to aid needy families in our community. The girls' generosity in giving their time and talents for this work is an asset to our school.

HALL PATROL

These reliable Seniors supervise traffic in the halls between classes. Not only do they execute their job seriously, but they also assist in any school activity where they are needed. The advisors are Mrs. Baily, Mrs. Herrington, Miss Senft, and Mr. Thompson.

GREENHAND

First year Future Farmers of America may join the Greenhand Club to familiarize themselves with the F.F.A. organization. Under the leadership of Mr. Kenneth Thompson, the members practice proper parliamentary procedure and learn to conduct meetings.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

By training boys to be leaders and clear thinkers the Future Farmers of America organization develops well-rounded farmers. With the guidance of Mr. Thompson and Mr. Bartholomew, the members learn to improve agricultural production by adopting better farming methods.

NINTH AND ELEVENTH GRADE AG SHOP

Ag Shop is an elective which is required for membership in the F.F.A. Under the leadership of Mr. Bartholomew and Mr. Thompson, the boys work on various projects in the school shop and on their farms.

TENTH AND TWELFTH GRADE AG SHOP

This division of the Ag Shop participates in activities similar to those of the ninth and eleventh grade club.

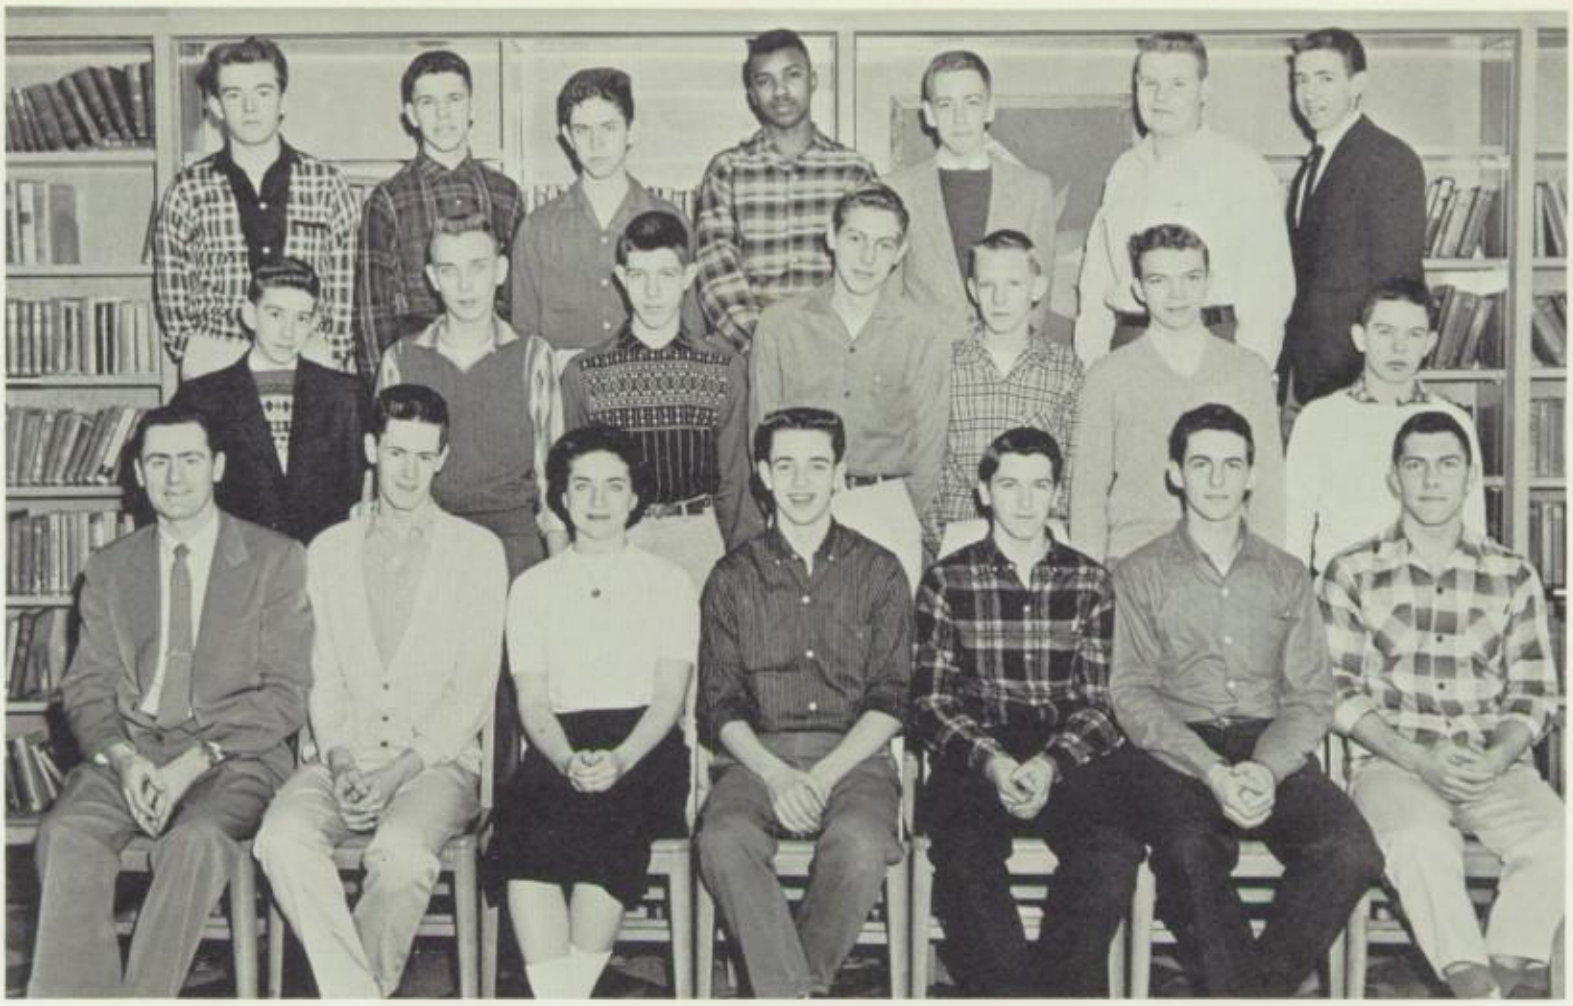
COIN CLUB

Money, money everywhere! This must be at a meeting of the Coin Club. Under the guidance of Mrs. Herrington and Mr. Esposito, the members learn about coins and their values and discuss coin collecting.

LIBRARY CLUB

Dedicated to serving the school, the Library Club arranges library displays, sponsors a book week contest, and in general promotes the reading of good books. Members also assist Mrs. Smith, the club's sponsor and the librarian, by working in the library during study halls and before school.

RIFLE CLUB



Safe and accurate use of firearms is stressed in the Rifle Club. Under the capable leadership of Mr. Sweigert, the members use the school rifle range to perfect this skill.

PROJECTIONIST CLUB

To train students to operate the school movie projectors, the Projectionist Club was formed. Mr. Matchner instructs the members in showing films in the classrooms and in the auditorium.

WEIGHT LIFTING CLUB

Sponsored by Mr. Smith, Weightlifting Club is intended to strengthen boys' physiques through competitive lifting. The following records have been set in the club: Dead lift, 300 lbs., C. Reburn; Press, 145 lbs., T. Ankney and G. Broomell; Curl, 125 lbs., D. Starkey; and Jerk, 205 lbs., D. Starkey.

TRAVEL CLUB

By seeing films, listening to lectures and studying pamphlets, these "Phileas Foggs" learn about the places to which they are unable to travel. The highpoint of the year's activities is the trip to New York City. Miss Morton is the club's sponsor.

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB

Designing, building and flying model planes constitute the basic program of the Model Airplane Club. This interesting work is a source of recreation and education for the members. The sponsor is Mr. Dunkle.

BATON CLUB

Junior high girls interested in becoming band majorettes improve their baton twirling in the Baton Club under the guidance of the present majorettes. From this group Mr. Heck selects the girls who will march with the band.

COLLEGE CLUB

By attending College Club, college-bound students gain valuable experience in writing compositions and taking aptitude and achievement tests. The members greatly appreciate Mrs. Wilde's work in providing them with supplementary drill in the essentials of English.

BROADCASTER

Every two weeks the Broadcaster staff publishes the school newspaper which informs the student body of social items and school events. Students gain valuable experience in journalism by working on the paper under the guidance of Mrs. Hindman.

SEVENTH GRADE RHYTHM CLUB

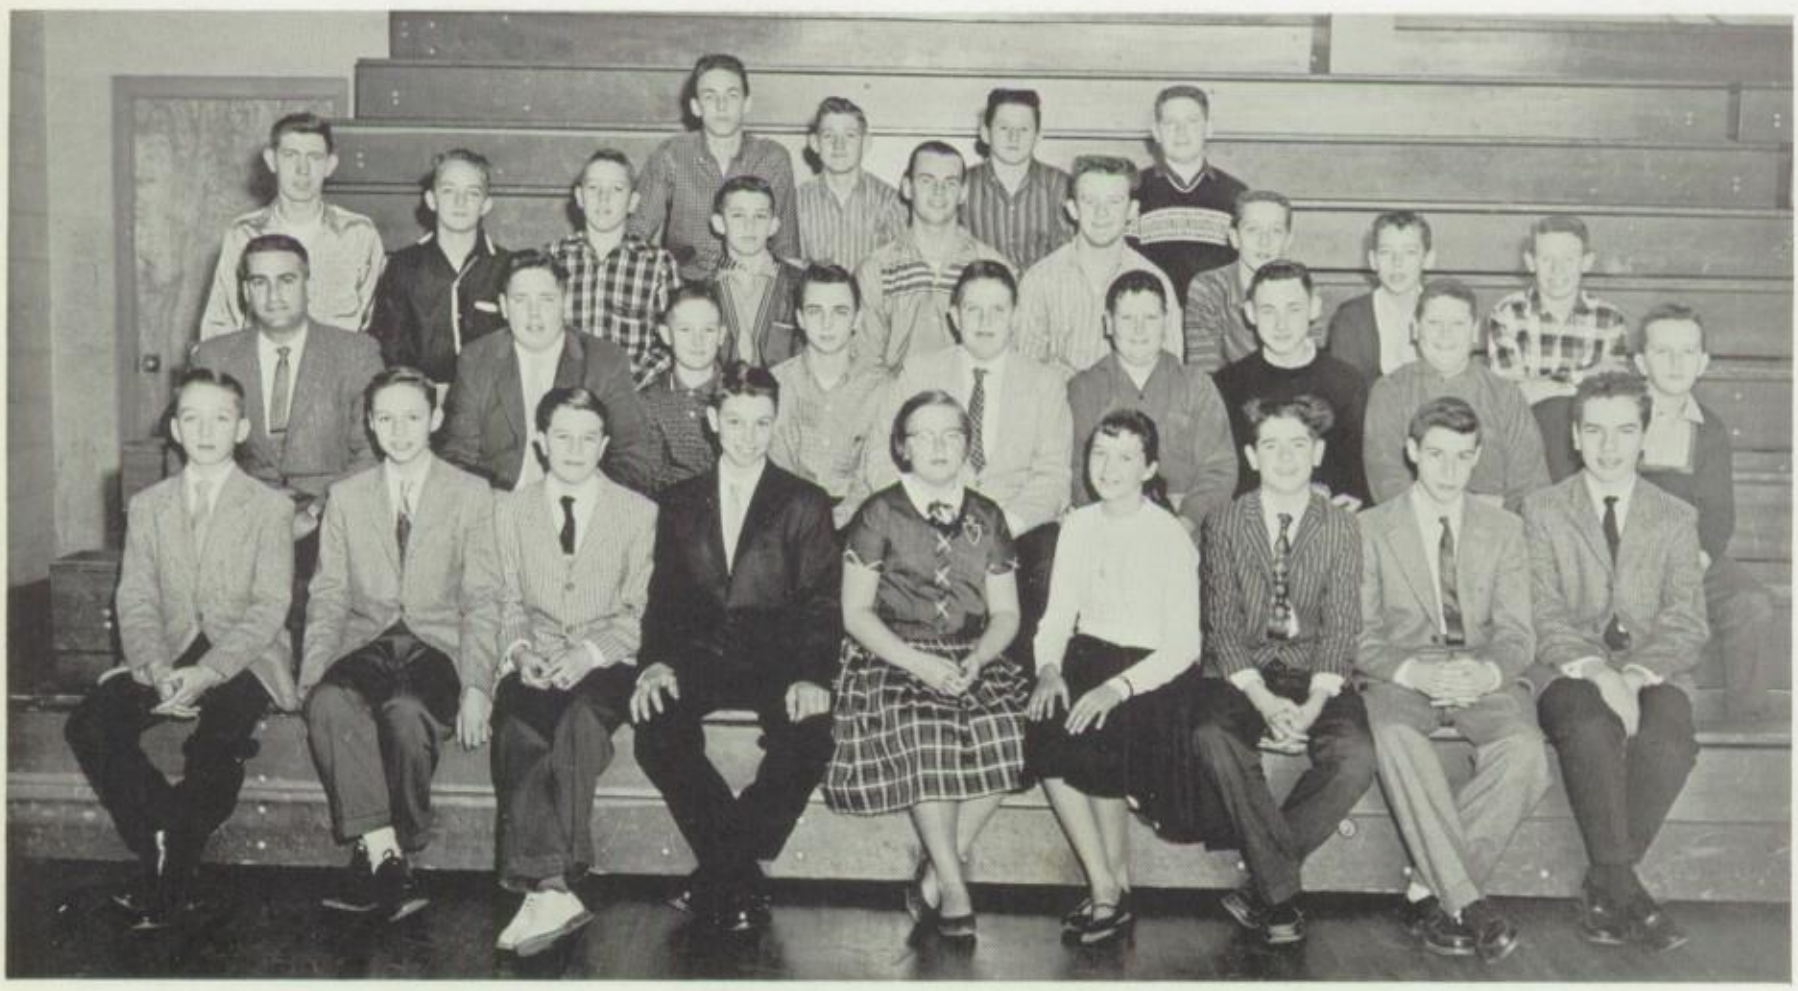
With its informal dancing, the Rhythm Club provides an outlet for the pent-up energy of seventh and eighth graders. In addition to giving exercise, dancing develops social poise and confidence. The club's sponsor is Mr. Shellenberger.

EIGHTH GRADE RHYTHM CLUB

GOLF CLUB

"Fore!" will be a familiar word when spring arrives and the Golf Club takes to the green. Having spent the winter learning the basic strokes and studying the rules of the game under the direction of Mr. Sensenig, these future "Hogans" will be trying for an under-par score every game.

ARCHERY CLUB



Accuracy in aim is the principal objective of this club. However, the members also obtain a skill and familiarity in the handling of a bow and arrow. Mr. Dunkle is the advisor.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Acquainting interested girls with practical and professional nursing is the aim of the Future Nurses of America. The activities of this organization, under the leadership of Mrs. Watt, include attending open house at local hospitals and taking tours of inspection.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE CHORUS

This year for the first time boys have been admitted to this chorus. Under the direction of Mrs. McClure the chorus members acquire practical training in developing their voices.

NINTH AND TENTH GRADE GIRLS' CHORUS

A new club this year, the Girls' Chorus, directed by Mrs. McClure, is designed to train freshman and sophomore girls for the Mixed Chorus. Terry Cochran is the accompanist.

SENIOR HIGH MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus consists of students from grades nine to twelve. During the year this fine vocal group, directed by Mrs. McClure and accompanied by Jacquelyn Johnson, presented the operetta, "The Singing Freshman," and the Christmas cantata, "Childe Jesus," and also participated in the spring Fine Arts Festival. In February the chorus attended the entertaining musical, "First Impressions," in Philadelphia.

OPERETTA

The Senior Mixed Chorus, directed by Mrs. McClure, presented "The Singing Freshman," a light, intriguing operetta dealing with the problems of a farm boy and a princess who fall in love at college. The students at dear old Yalenova evolve a successful plan for uniting the two lovers in spite of the difference in their positions, and all ends happily as everyone knew it would.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Advisor	Oliver Alexander
President	Dale Melrath
Vice President	Susan Burke
Secretary	Carolyn Wilson
Treasurer	Gayle Cummings

The Student Athletic Association, with its four senior officers, sponsor, and the student body as its constituency, tries to develop school spirit and student support for athletics.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

All girls participating in sports programs belong to the G.A.C., sponsored by Mrs. Rosazza. The club's big event of the year is the G.A.C. Banquet, given in honor of the graduating members.

CHEERLEADING CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Rosazza and the cheerleaders, the girls in this club learn the various cheers so they may support our teams at games. The varsity cheerleaders are selected from this group.

JUNIOR VARSITY HOCKEY

Coach Barbara Rosazza
Managers Barbara Hunter
Jane Cash

Through teamwork, cooperation, and endless effort on the part of Mrs. Rosazza, our Varsity hockey team captured the league championship with a record of five victories and two ties. Although nine seniors are leaving, there is sure to be a good team next year as well.

The Junior Varsity was not as fortunate as the Varsity team, but they showed promise in winning two games, losing three, and tying two.

CROSS COUNTRY

Coach Laverne Shellenberger
Captain Howard Robinson
Manager Robert Pyle

This year the cross country boys had an average season. Nelson Prange much improved from a year ago, established a new record at the Kennett meet just before he suffered a broken leg.

According to the coach, Mr. Shellenberger, with new boys out and experienced runners returning, Oxford should have a strong team next fall.

SOCCER

Coach William Shearer
Co-Captains John Chamberlain
Dale Melrath
Managers Jeff Berkowich
Joseph Riley

"Shearer's Soccermen," despite their record of three wins and seven losses in the league, had a good season. Although crippled by inexperience, the team displayed hustle under co-captains John Chamberlain and Dale Melrath.

The Second Annual Old Shoe Game was won, much to the regret of the seniors, by the underclassmen. The one to nothing score shows the game was as hard fought as it was humorous. No doubt half the crowd came out to see the players' ridiculous uniforms.

Also this year the soccer and the hockey teams fought to a one to one tie, playing hockey. Gayle Cummings and Mr. Shearer supplied the scoring for an exciting game.

GIRLS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach Barbara Rosazza
Managers Joan Adleman
Diana Fisher

Our Varsity girls' basketball team went into their season with high spirits, hoping to match the hockey team's record. They didn't equal the success of the hockey team, but still they had a good season. The coach, Mrs. Rosazza, put special emphasis on training underclassmen to take the place of the four departing seniors.

The Junior Varsity played well with everyone showing good sportsmanship.

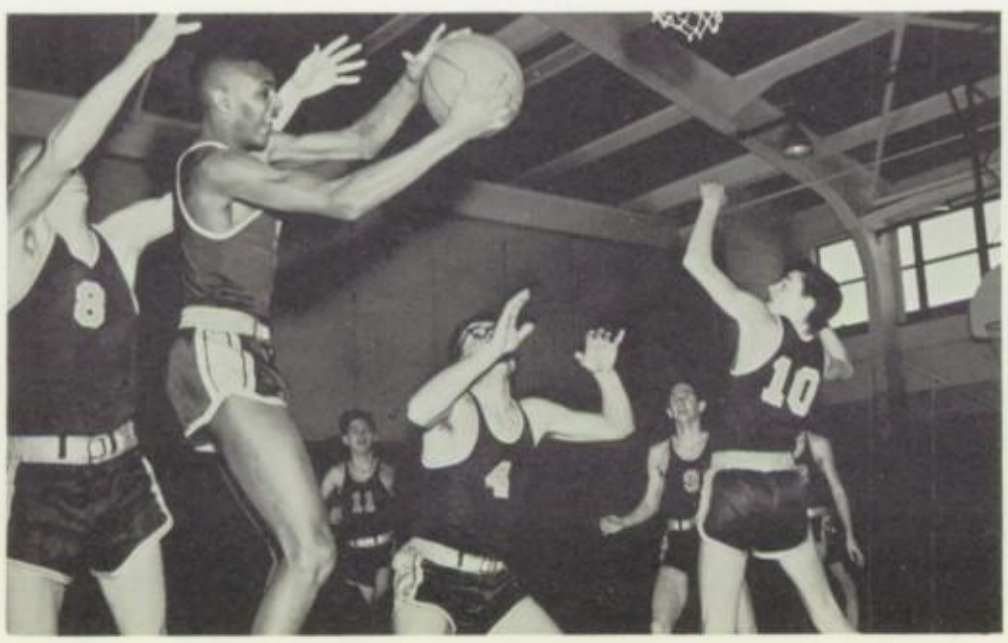
BOYS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Coach Kenneth Howett

Neither the Varsity nor the Junior Varsity team had an outstanding season. In spite of this, Oxford's Dale Melrath was one of the league's leading scorers.

However, the future looks brighter, since we have several good prospects coming up and other teams will be losing their big men.

During the season the Varsity coach, Mr. Esposito, provided an educational outing for the team by arranging a trip to a college basketball game at West Chester.



CAFETERIA WORKERS

Masters of the culinary arts, the cafeteria workers feed hundreds of voracious students every day. By satisfying hungry stomachs these courteous ladies do their part to assist the learning process.

CUSTODIANS

Our school's gleaming floors and spotless rooms are the visible results of the work of the custodians. Always going about their duties unobtrusively, those untiring workers are appreciated by everyone.
